

The TarMac Vaporware Gazette
SEPTEMBER 2013

🍏 SECURITY ~ FAQs About Hacks: Everything you need to know about the Syrian Electronic Army

by Brad Chacos, PC World ~ Aug 28, 2013

This rogue group took down the New York Times, and affected Twitter and nearly hit The Huffington Post. How dangerous is it, and do we need to be concerned?

<http://www.pcworld.com/article/2047627/faqs-about-hacks-everything-you-need-to-know-about-the-syrian-electronic-army.html>

🍏 12 things you may not have known about OS X Mavericks
by Serenity Caldwell ~ MacWorld

From Full-screen Finder, WindowMerge, Drag-and-drop file expansion, saving Wi-Fi passwords across devices, and improvements in the Reader, Calendar, and social networking sites, there's so much to learn about—and enjoy—in OS X Mavericks. And if your computer is powerful enough, you can even drive a third, fully functional display.

For complete article, visit: http://www.macworld.com/article/2041460/12-things-you-may-not-have-known-about-os-x-mavericks.html#tk.nl_macwk

🍏 Apple iOS 7 Review ~ A Major Makeover That Delivers, But Takes Some Getting Used To

by Darrell Etherton, TechCrunch.com

This is a big week for Apple; it has two new phones hitting store shelves, and a brand new operating system that becomes available Sept. 18 for compatible devices. The new mobile operating system is a big visual change, and is likely to feel somewhat disorienting to users upgrading from iOS 6, but in most important ways, it's not that dissimilar from what you're used to, and many of the changes are definitely for the best.

Read entire article at: <http://techcrunch.com/2013/09/17/ios-7-review-apple/>

TarMac - Tidewater Area Macintosh User Group. Officers and other board members:
President, Tom Davis; Vice President, Ray Kallman; Treasurer, Jan Cooke; Ambassador, Brian Fountain.
Frank Smith, Cindy Huffman, Gary Gobel, Eleanor Cavin, Nyxolino Cangemi, Lynn McAlpine.

Meetings are the 2nd and 3rd Thursday of each month except December, 6-8:30 pm.
Pop's Diner, 1432 Greenbrier Pkwy, Chesapeake, VA

Website: <http://tidewatermug.757.org/index.html> ~ Email: tidewatermug@mac.com